“Home of the Outlaws”

---

April 20, 2020

Good Morning Outlaw Families,

I do apologize for ANOTHER MESSAGE. I do understand our families are being overwhelmed with information, I am so sorry about that. With all new endeavors, there is a time period at the beginning when information needs to be received multiple times to get a clear picture. I am leaning on giving more information at this point. I promise we will get into a new rhythm in a relative short amount of time and there won't be information overload.

This message is to clarify some misunderstandings around Pass-Fail and our Friday Schedule. I'm also sending you a link to this Thursday's community meeting, see below. This is a meeting that will be hosted by me to give updates about Distance Learning and to get feedback from our families. All of the Principals and the Superintendent post community letters on our website.
