

Sisters Middle School: 2020-21 Educational Options

Hybrid Learning Full details are outlined in the SMS Operational Blueprint for Reentry; will be posted on SMS/SSD website after 8/13/2020	Comprehensive Distance Learning Not the same as Spring Distance Learning for All	Sisters Education Options (SEO)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students in this model come to school on A/B days (in HYBRID) or in-person every regular school day with with additional precautionary measures and procedures in place to address health protocols ● Teacher manages and delivers instruction core and elective instruction ● Students have a set instructional schedule with in-person connections with their teacher and peers ● Teacher assesses student learning and completes SSD report card ● In-person meals in classrooms ● Services for students who qualify for special education determined by the IEP team in accordance with IDEA requirements. ● Mental Health and Academic Support Services ● In-person technology support 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students in this model learn at home and engage with their teacher in an on-line distance platform ● Teacher manages and delivers instruction ● Students have a set instructional schedule with live connections with their teacher ● Teacher assesses student learning and completes SSD report card ● Teacher manages and delivers instruction core and elective instruction ● Grab N’ Go Meals available for pick up ● Services for students who qualify for special education determined by the IEP team in accordance with IDEA requirements. ● Remote Mental Health and Academic Support Services ● Remote technology support State requirements: MINIMUM of 2 hours, 30 minutes each day; 12 hours, 30 minutes per week of Teacher-Facilitated Learning including synchronous (live)/ asynchronous learning Daily recording of attendance Daily interactions with teacher Daily interactions with classroom peers Rigorous, standards based instruction and assessment	SEO Options are limited to unique family situations at the middle school level. If a family has a unique situation in which Comprehensive Distance Learning or Hybrid Learning doesn’t work for their family. Please contact, Tim Roth, SMS Assistant Principal as a primary contact, or SMS Principal, Alison Haney, as a secondary contact. 5th Grade SEO: District Supported Homeschooling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students in this model learn at home and the parent makes the instructional decisions in consultation with the advisor ● An SMS advisor consults with parents to create an instructional plan and access content ● Parent delivers instruction ● Parent assesses student learning ● Parent determines instructional schedule ● Parent meets 2x/quarter with advisor to discuss student progress ● Advisor provides SSD report card based on submitted student artifacts ● SMS Core Curriculum is offered; electives may or may not be offered depending on the elective ● Grab N’ Go Meals available for pick up ● Remote technology support if parent requests student be issued a Chromebook 5th-8th Grade Please contact Tim Roth for SEO online options.

--	--	--